Summary

I am currently a 3rd year Computer Science Engineering student with a specialization in Cyber Security, possessing a strong technical foundation and an unwavering commitment to continuous learning. My journey began with a curiosity about the inner workings of websites, evolving into a profound enthusiasm for technological exploration.

I thrive on embracing and mastering new technologies, always aiming to understand the forefront of innovation. I am eager to collaborate, learn, and make meaningful contributions to the ever-evolving tech landscape. I look forward to connecting with like-minded professionals and sharing our technological journeys.
